Late Breaker: Influenza A activity appears to have peaked in Colorado. However, it is still not too late to vaccinate as there is still significant influenza A circulation and influenza B has not yet arrived. We are also seeing continued and rising circulation of RSV contributing to increasing cases of bronchiolitis and admissions for respiratory support.