Late Breaker:

We continue to see a significant amount of viral gastroenteritis in the community. In addition, we have seen a few patients positive for influenza. Thankfully, the CDC and CDPHE are still reporting that overall influenza activity currently remains low. Interestingly, however, locally and nationally we are seeing more influenza B than influenza A which is an unusual trend for influenza.