Late Breaker: We are seeing our yearly fall increase in rhinovirus/enterovirus positive specimens which often correlates with the return to school. Some of these infections have been associated with asthma exacerbations and asthma-like presentations. Remember to encourage your patients to have good respiratory and hand hygiene!