Late Breaker: Influenza and RSV circulation remain minimal in Colorado. However, over the past 2 weeks we have started to see a slight increase in the number of children testing positive for both viruses. This serves as a reminder to encourage influenza vaccination and RSV monoclonal antibody therapy (nirsevimab) for those eligible.