Late Breaker: The laboratory has seen its first few positive tests for influenza - so it looks like it might be an early influenza season! We are also still seeing enterovirus positive patients and recently there has been an increase in diarrheal viruses. As always, encourage your patients to get vaccinated against influenza and encourage good respiratory and hand hygiene.